

Everglades

Kingston Trio

Key of D

Intro:

| D G | A7 | D G | A7 | D | D

Verse 1:

D A7
He was born and raised around Jacksonville,
A7 D
a nice young man not the kind to kill,
D G
But a jealous fight and a flashing blade,
A7 D
sent him on the run thru the Everglades.
D C D
Runnin' like a dog thru the Everglades.
D A7
Now the posse went in and they came back out,
A7 D
they said he'll die there ain't no doubt,
D G
It's an eye for an eye so the debt is paid,
A7 D
he won't last long in the Everglades.
D C D
A man can't live in the Everglades.

Chorus:

G D
Where a man can hide and never be found,
A7 D
and have no fear of the baying hound,
D G
but he better keep movin' and don't stand still,
A7 D
if the skeeters don't get him then the gators will.

Verse 2:

D A7
Now the years went by and his girl was wed,
A7 D
his family gave him up for dead.

D But now and then the G natives would say,
A7 they seen him runnin' thru the D Everglades.
D Runnin' like a C dog thru the D Everglades.

D Now he never heard the news on the A7 radio, he was A7 deep in the 'glades so he'll D never know

D His runnin' and hidin' never G made much sense, for the A7 jury had ruled it was D self defense.
D Runnin' like a C dog thru the D Everglades.

G Where a man can hide and D never be found,
A7 and have no fear of the D baying hound, but he D Better keep movin' and G don't stand still,
A7 if the D skeeters don't get him then the D gators will.

D Runnin' like a C dog thru the D Everglades.
D Slippin' like a C frog thru the D slimy bog.
D Runnin' thru the C trees from the D Everlys.
