

RED RIVER VALLEY

(D), (A7), (D)6

From this (D) valley they (A7) say you are (D) going,
We will miss your bright eyes and sweet (A) smile,
For they (D) say you are (D7) taking the (G) sunshine,
That has (A) brightened our (A7) life for a (D) while.

CHORUS: Come and (D) sit by my (A7) side if you (D) love me,
Do not hasten to bid me a (A) dieu,
But (D) remember the (D7) Red River (G) Valley,
And the (A) one who (A7) loved you so (D) true.

When you (D) go to your (A7) home by the (D) ocean,
May you never forget those sweet (A) hours,
That we (D) spent in that (D7) Red River (G) Valley,
And the (A) love we ex (A7) changed with the (D) flowers.

CHORUS:

I have (D) waited a long (A7) time my (D) darling,
For those words that you never would (A) say,
And at (D) last, oh my (D7) poor heart is (G) breaking,
For they (A) tell me your (A7) going a (D) way.
