CHORDS

Capo II

| A | A | A | E | D | E | D | A | D E | A |
She came

A E
to me, said she knew me
D E
said she'd known me a long time
D A
And she spoke of being in love
D A
With every mountain she had climbed

A E
And she talked of trails she'd walked up
D E
Far a-bove the timber line
D A
From that night on I knew I'd write songs
D
With Caro-lina in the

| A | B | D | A | A | B | D | A |
pines There's a

A E
new moon on the fourteenth
D A
First quarter the twenty-first
D A
And the full moon in the last week
D A
Brings a fullness to this earth

A E
There's no guesswork in the clockwork
D A
Of the world's heart or mind

D                  A
There are nights I only feel right

With Caro-lina in the

|A  |B  |D  |A  |      |B  |D  |A  | pines                          When the

A                          E
frost shows on the window

          D                  E
And the wood stove smokes and glows

          D                  A
As the fire grows we will warm our souls

          D                  A
Watching rainbows in the coals

A                          E
And we'll talk of trails we've walked up

          D                  A
Far a-bove the timber line

          D                  A
There are nights I only feel right

          D                  A
With Caro-lina in the pines
